Mid-Columbia
BALLET

2006 - 2007
Season

Dear Friend of the Ballet ~

The Mid-Columbia Ballet (MCB), Southeastern Washington's prestigious dance company, is entering its 31st season. In addition to our traditional holiday performances of the Nutcracker, we will be presenting an Evening of Ballet featuring Patricia Barker in February. Patricia, a Richland native and world renown ballerina, is retiring this year from her career as principal dancer with Pacific Northwest Ballet (PNB). In March, we will continue our successful children's series with a new production of Hansel & Gretel, guaranteed to charm adults and children alike.

MCB is also proud to continue its tradition of performing the Nutcracker Suite and Peter and the Wolf for more than 5,000 Mid-Columbia school children. Education and outreach are core elements of MCB's contribution to the local community.

In 1991, the Tri-Cities Corporate Council for the Arts was founded and the Council generously supported the performing arts in our community for many years. However, the Council has since disbanded, resulting in a gap in contributed income. Consequently, we need your donation. Please support us by using the attached donor card. MCB is a valuable resource to the community, and only through your generous support will it be possible for us to continue our tradition of excellence.

"The Mid-Columbia Ballet's Nutcracker is a signature event for this area."
