

MID-COLUMBIA BALLET GUILD FORM
2006-2007 ~ Information & Membership Form

WHAT IS THE MID-COLUMBIA BALLET?

The Mid-Columbia Ballet (MCB) is a non-profit organization, established in 1973, to further the art of dance in the community. The MCB is an Honor Company in Regional Dance America. This is the highest rating a regional dance company can achieve.

The business of the MCB is overseen by a Board of Directors, an Artistic Director (Debra Rogo), an Associate Artistic Director (Diana Law), Artistic Assistant (Torrie Ransom), and Administrative Assistant (Gaye Wutzke).

The Mid-Columbia Ballet includes a Senior, Intermediate, Junior, and Petite Company. The Senior Company usually has 15-20 accomplished and committed dancers. There are sometimes also trainees and apprentices who are important to the growth and future of the Senior Company. The Intermediate, Junior and Petite Company programs are also essential to the future success of the MCB, through the additional training these young dancers receive.

WHAT IS "THE GUILD"?

The Guild exists to provide financial and volunteer support to the Mid-Columbia Ballet. Each year the Guild commits not only to raising money to help support the financial business of the MCB, but also assumes responsibility for organizing all the many wonderful volunteers necessary to support productions such as The Nutcracker.

WHO JOINS THE GUILD?

Anyone who wishes to ensure that the children of the Tri-Cities will always have an opportunity to enjoy the cultural experience of ballet. It is your support that will build a strong program for the future.
